

THE REVIVAL.

CHRISTIANITY TESTED BY RAIN AND MUD.

A Small Afternoon Assemblage But a Good Crowd in the Evening—The Preachers' Corner a Little Lonesome—Christians Not Ashamed.

The Moody meetings, at Hazard's Pavilion, were not so successful yesterday as during the earlier part of the week, on account of the storm. The afternoon meeting, at 3 o'clock, was not a success, so far as numbers go, for the hall was not half filled, but Mr. Moody talked just as he would if the house had been packed, and those who were in attendance seemed to thoroughly enjoy the service. Last night the lower floor was comfortably filled, and the first gallery was about half full. The choir turned out in good force, notwithstanding the rain, but the ministers' end of the platform was not crowded as it has been every night during the week. It was manifest that a number of the reverend gentlemen did not care to venture out in the rain. The singing was unusually good last night. The choir is improving all the time and they seemed to be anxious to outdo themselves. Miss Boole and Mr. Stebbins sang well as usual.

"I want to call your attention to three verses in the 10th chapter of Romans. If you will take the three steps mentioned in these verses, no man need go out of this hall tonight without being a Christian. There are so many men that are ashamed to become Christians. They are ashamed of Christ. This is the reason that there are so many backsliders. I don't believe there is a single man living who has confessed Christ and has not been blessed. Go home and confess Christ and take up the cross and you will be blessed. You ought not to be ashamed of Christ when he takes you up, forgives your sins and raises you. Do you think that a recruit would make a good soldier if he were ashamed to put on the uniform? My friends, if you want to become soldiers you must put on the uniform of Christ or you cannot be saved. If a man denies Christ before man he will be denied before God. There are thousands of people who are not Christians simply because they are afraid to be laughed at. I pity a man who can be laughed out of a principle. He is a poor creature."

The speaker told several good stories about young men who wanted to read their Bibles in the presence of their roommates, but were ashamed to. He strongly advised the heads of families to go home and have family prayers every night. "Every man should hold family prayers, for no man can be a Christian if he is ashamed to read his Bible and pray in his family's presence. You never saw a man in your life who had peace when he was away from God."

The speaker then told a lengthy story about how a whole family became converted after they had started in to make fun of the revivals that were being held in their city. "A young convert in one of the eastern cities where I was holding meetings got so enthusiastic that he mounted a dry goods box one day and began to tell about his conversion. An infidel came along and told him he ought to be ashamed of himself. 'I am,' replied the young man, 'but I am not ashamed of Christ.' He had the true idea, and made a useful man. If there were more such men in this world the churches would be filled, whereas they are empty now. There are a great many men who say they can't pray, but any one can pray as Jesus, who simply said, 'Lord, remember me.' That was enough. That evening he was in heaven, a pure being, while in the morning he had been a vile sinner and a thief, and yet those few words saved him. He simply confessed Christ and was made pure."

He then told the story of how Joseph secured the body of Jesus after his death, while the whole world was laughing at him. "My friends, the whole world sent up a laugh of ridicule, but when Joseph came to die he did not regret having confessed Jesus. There was a chariot ready for Joseph when the breath passed out of Jesus' body. I can see that chariot going up, up, and when it reached the throne I can see Jesus stand up and say to his father: 'This is the man who took my mangled body from the cross and gave it a decent burial, and I want you to take him to your arms.' God did not refuse, and then Joseph was not sorry that he had confessed Jesus. Now there are hundreds here who may confess Jesus with the same success. Mr. Moody then closed with prayer, and the meeting devoted itself to a praise service, and those who wanted to become Christians were given a chance. There will be no meeting today, but tomorrow there will be four. There will be a meeting for men only at 3 o'clock, conducted by Mr. Winslow of London, who is traveling with Mr. Moody. George C. Stebbins will lead the singing. Only ladies will be admitted at the Pavilion at the same hour. Should it rain tomorrow, however, these separate meetings may be dispensed with.

Escaped Their Clutches. Bartolo Flores, whose testimony served to place Sabine, the would-be jury-fixer, behind the bars, under sentence of Judge Ross, was arrested here some weeks ago, it will be remembered, on a charge of robbery. He was taken to San Diego, where he was tried and acquitted of the charge. After his liberation a man whom he supposed to be his friend enticed him across the border, at Tia Juana. There he received information that Sabine's friends were making arrangements to have him arrested on a trumped-up charge, and he skipped back to the friendly shelter of the United States. He is in Los Angeles now, and proposes to remain here.

Arroyo Seco Blocked. The Garvanza toll-bridge has been damaged by the freshet and is now closed to teams until repairs can be effected. This is a source of considerable annoyance to the traveling public on that road, as there is no other way to get from Garvanza to South Pasadena since Mr. Rogers, the owner of the bridge, has closed up the old Mission road, which was the only practicable way across the Arroyo Seco. Persons going to Pasadena should go by the adobe road leading from the Aliso road.

Criminal Cases. In Judge Cheney's court yesterday the sentence of John Ryan, convicted of burglary, was postponed until March 18th. J. Cantor was on trial during the afternoon for embezzlement.

POLICE MATTERS.

The New Commission and Its Probable Course.

There has been much talk on the streets, and especially in political circles, since the newly-elected Council and Mayor-elect Hazard met in caucus in that gentleman's office and selected the various Commissioners that are to serve under the new administration. It was said by those who pretended to know that the four gentlemen chosen at the caucus for members would not be confirmed in open Council next Thursday, when that body will hold its first regular meeting. The reasons given by the gossips are numerous, but the only ones that seemed to possess a shadow of truth were to the effect that the two Republican appointees would not serve with the Democrats, and that the Democratic party did not look favorably upon the gentlemen chosen as representatives of their party, for the reason that one of them is a member of the American party, and the other has no special following in the Democratic ranks. These stories were vigorously circulated, and there are a number of people who believe that the commission will be made up of men who have not yet been named.

There is now in a position to say that the gentlemen appointed in caucus will serve, if the Councilmen who voted for them are of the same mind next Thursday, and, so far as can be seen now, the commission will pull in harmony, and will do good work. Capt. Johnson and Mr. Lindley are gentlemen against whom nothing can be said. They are not only rank as thorough business men, but they stand high in the Republican party, and have the confidence of the entire community.

It is believed that the commission will be harmonious in their action, and will undoubtedly make a good selection for Chief of Police. They have talked the matter over and have come to the conclusion that a man of undoubted honesty, a fair education, good horse sense and executive ability is the kind of a man needed by Los Angeles at present.

The commission don't propose to select a man who will be at war with them all the time. They want a man who does not imagine that he can't be taught something about police business, but one who is willing to take their advice once in a while and they know that if they take a man who is set in his ways, and imagines himself the greatest criminal detective in the world they will not be able to get along with him, and the police department will be in hot water all the time just as it has been in the past.

There will probably be many changes on the police force. A number of Democrats and Republicans, too, will be let out and an attempt will be made to give the city a better police service than it ever before had.

The Illinois People.

This evening the long-established but recently-incorporated Illinois Association will hold another reception and entertainment at Masonic Hall, No. 29 South Spring street, beginning at 7:30, to which everybody is invited. The programme includes vocal numbers, instrumental music and elocution, by such local talent as the Connor & Aylsworth Orchestra, Mr. and Mrs. Fanning, Prof. Eastman, Miss Kittie Richards, Mr. Hawthorne, Mr. De Lano, Miss Werner, Mrs. De Lano, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Hickey, a professional male quartette, Mr. Lauterbach, Mr. Seidel and others.

A MIGHT-HAVE-BEEN.

A Notable Instance Out of Many Showing How the Early Spanish Ranch-Owners Lost Their Large Estates and Became Poor.

Many years ago when this country was but little better than a wilderness, the Mexican Government granted to Mrs. Luisa Garfias 11 leagues of land, or 48,000 acres. The grant covered the whole of what is now known as Pasadena and South Pasadena. For some years the ranch was devoted to sheep-raising.

Mrs. Garfias is a lady of Spanish extraction, education and refinement, but she never displayed much business ability, and while she made a comfortable living from her immense estates, she never saved a dollar. On the other hand she raised money from time to time by mortgage on her real estate, and some years ago she found that she would have to give up her home. The immense property passed into the hands of strangers, and Mrs. Garfias received a few hundred dollars for land that is now worth millions.

Until six years ago Mrs. Garfias lived in Los Angeles and watched her old home as it grew from a semi-barren sheep ranch to a city that has built up a world-wide fame. She knew that she was to receive no benefits on account of this wonderful change, but she loved the country that had given her birth and in which she had spent so many happy years, and she rejoiced to see it bloom as the rose.

As Pasadena and the country surrounding it grew in wealth and prosperity the poor lady found poverty stalking about her humble home in Los Angeles with a boldness that soon convinced her that she would either have to go to the poorhouse or seek some other country. It almost broke her heart to leave this city, but there was nothing else to do. She had barely enough money to pay her fare to San Diego, but she bought a ticket and checked a little trunk which contained her earthly possessions, and a woman who might have been worth millions turned her back on Los Angeles, as she thought, forever. And it may be that she will never again set her foot on the land she loves so dearly. But there is a movement in Pasadena, among a few gentlemen who have been made acquainted with her sad story, to buy a lot, build a nice house, fit it up in comfortable style, and present it to the old lady, with an income sufficient to keep her wolf from her door during the few years that are left to her.

These gentlemen learned that Mrs. Garfias is living in San Diego in subject poverty, and they made up their minds to do something for her. The work has already been put under headway, and as Pasadena is noted for the liberality of her citizens, there is but little doubt that the old lady will be made comfortable in a very short time. One of the principal movers in the scheme said to a Times reporter yesterday:

"Mrs. Garfias is now 72 years of age, but she is a woman of magnificent constitution, and the chances are that she will live ten or twelve years longer, and it is nothing but right that the people of Pasadena should make her declining years as comfortable as possible. She has had a mighty hard time of it since she went to San Diego, and is always pining for her old country and associations, and as a few dollars from Pasadena people will make her happy, I think it nothing but right that we should stand in. I will probably have something further for you in a short time."

UNDER THE WHEELS.

A Baker Run Down and Killed at Park Station.

Yesterday afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock, a frightful accident occurred at Park Station, on the Santa Monica road, about three miles from the city, which resulted in the instant death of a German named John Knauff, aged about 25 years. Knauff was in the employ of his brother, H. Knauff, proprietor of the University bakery, at No. 922 South Main street, and was driving the bakery wagon when the accident occurred. He was approaching the railroad crossing at a moderate gait, and did not notice the on-coming train until he was almost on the track, when he checked up his horse and attempted to back him out of the way. This the animal refused to do, as he had never been taught to back, when the engineer of the approaching train motioned to him to drive ahead. He did so, but was not quick enough to get out of the way, the engine striking the wagon, which was smashed to kindling wood, throwing Knauff beneath the wheels of the moving train, killing him instantly and mangle the body in a frightful manner. The skull was crushed, as were the bones of the chest, and the wheels passed over the stomach, almost cutting the body in two.

Coroner Meredith was notified shortly after the accident happened, and went after the body, which was brought to Orr & Sutch's place on Spring street, where the inquest will be held today. Knauff was unmarried, and lived with his brother. He was a sober, industrious man, and was quite popular among his associates. This is the second or third accident of the kind that has happened at or near this place.

St. Patrick's Day.

St. Patrick's day will be celebrated with a musical and literary entertainment at Turnverein Hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Park fund. Among the speakers for the occasion are Hon. E. F. Spence, Hon. Henry T. Hazard, Hon. Joseph D. Lynch, Rev. Father Rooney of San Francisco and Rev. P. F. Breece of Pasadena.

Stolen Clocks.

Police Officer Murphy yesterday recovered a couple of clocks which had been stolen from a schoolhouse on the East Side on Wednesday last. Murphy also brought in the man who stole the clocks, who gave the name of Joe Henderson. He was arrested and locked up on a charge of burglary.

FROM THE FRONT.

The Deluded Still Going, the Disgusted Retreating.

SAN DIEGO, March 14.—[Special Correspondence of THE TIMES.] A gentleman just from the mines, at Santa Clara, says: "For heaven's sake tell the poor people to stay away from Mexico, if they do not want to be victimized and robbed."

Mr. William F. Clarke writes to Mrs. Wardman from the gold camp, and says: "The gold gulch is limited in extent, and taken up. Unless new discoveries are made this will prove a stupendous failure. Many are leaving, disappointed of course, but hundreds are arriving daily. Stop the rush if possible, as you will be doing a service to humanity."

The Evening Sun has the courage to print both the above quotations, and they doubtless point in the right direction.

George W. Fugard is to leave San Diego this afternoon with the largest pack train of burros that has ever gone to the mines. He goes prepared to stay two or three months. He goes to prospect for quartz mines. He believes the mountains round about Santa Clara are loaded with gold, locked up in the rocks. He seems to have no faith in the placer mines. As this train goes out of town another train comes in, and the dilapidated prospectors inform us that the whole thing is a failure and that there is no gold in Santa Clara.

Groups of men can be seen on the streets at all hours discussing the latest news, and those coming from the mines are plied with hundreds of interrogatories.

One man came in today tired and footsore, and too mad to answer questions politely. He was mad on general principles, but especially at the newspapers. He is going to hunt up the Tribune man when he gets to Los Angeles. Another old fellow came along up the street riding a mule that was with Noah in the ark, and the man looked as though he might have been there himself. He was as lively and happy as a boy, however. He laughed and joked with the group that gathered around him until the man who was mad at all the newspapers in Southern California got into a good humor. He said he supposed there must be gold in Santa Clara, but that he failed to find any. He said the "old woman" told him not to go, and that she would thrash him sure when he got home. "Boys," he said, "who will set 'em up?" The boys addressed belong to the Prohibition party, but they ordered some drinks for that fellow, and it did the whole crowd good to see him drink four schooners of beer and a good sour mash.

There are quite a number of people here who have come in from Los Angeles and San Francisco, expecting to go to the mines, but are undecided what to do, waiting for more news. One hour they think they will go at once and see for themselves, and the next hour they determine to return home. And so they watch and wait. The latest news is always gathered up and passed down the line, and the daily papers are read eagerly by the undecided multitude. Most of these people will go back home from this point satisfied that it is not all gold that glitters.

A party of 12, with Capt. Seovell from San Jacinto, disbanding here, sold their outfit and returned home.

A number of parties came down from Los Angeles a few days since, but they were disappointed. The next train, some time ago in here, open their ears to the unfavorable news, get too drunk to be admitted to shelter, spend the night on the sidewalks and then leave for home next morning, using language that has a strong smell of fire and brimstone. Others pass right on to the Mexican line, saying they care nothing for the reports from the mines.

Louis Levin, just in from the mines, says there is not a claim that cannot be bought for $100. He says that nearly every claim is from 800 yards to two miles from water, and all dirt has to be carried to the water; that all work is done by panning, as there is not water enough for rockers.

Capt. Friend, the Union correspondent, is still alive, and has written a Mexican claim and gone to digging for gold.

Wants to Whip Bill.

There was a very lively scene in Judge Clark's court yesterday forenoon. "Bull" Williams was questioning a witness, a lady, and in the course of the examination asked her if she was married to her husband. There was an ominous flash from the witness's eyes as she snapped out, "Yes, and I will remember you for asking that question." There was quite a stormy scene between the lawyer and witness, which was finally quieted, and the trial proceeded. The witness was strictly on the warpath, and after she left the courtroom, told a reporter that she intended to horsewhip the attorney if he went to prison for it.

G.A.R.

The severe storm kept many away from the open meeting of Stanton Post and Corps last evening, still there was a goodly number present and a fine programme was rendered, participated in by Profs. Scholes and Arend, Misses Smith and Gillman, Comrades Maholm and Skinner.

The drawing of the lot advertised to take place was necessarily postponed. Due notice of the drawing will be given. Considerable feeling was manifested by all present against the use of Memorial day by the wheelmen for a public exhibition and ball as proposed by them. Definite action will soon be taken in the matter.

Cuticura Remedies.

Infantile Skin and Scalp Diseases.

Boy one year and a half old. Face and body in a terrible condition, being covered with sores. Sulphur springs fail. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

I have used your CUTICURA REMEDIES in two cases, where it proved to be successful. The first was in the case of a boy a year and a half old. His face and body were in a terrible condition, the former being completely covered with sores. I took him to the Massena Sulphur Springs, but he did not improve any. I was then advised to try the CUTICURA. I used it, and he was cured. I took one and a half bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, when his skin was as smooth as could be, and is today. I used the CUTICURA on his sores and the CUTICURA SOAP in washing him. He is now five years of age, and all right. The other case was a disease of the scalp, which was cured by washing with the CUTICURA SOAP and rubbing in the CUTICURA. One bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT being used. They have proved successful in every case where I have advised the use of them. It is surprising how rapidly a child will improve under their treatment. I recommend them for any disease of the skin as being the best in the world. This is my experience, and I am ready to stand by my statement.

JOHN R. BERO.

American House, Hogsburg, N. Y.

We have used your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and find them worthy the claim you make for them. In fact, they cannot be too highly recommended. Our little girl had the eczema, and suffered intensely for one winter, and although under the care of a skilled physician he could afford her no relief, but by the use of your CUTICURA REMEDIES she was speedily cured. We will not be without your CUTICURA REMEDIES.

R. A. MANLEY, Milo, Iowa.

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES successfully for my baby, who was afflicted with eczema, and had such intense itching that he got no rest day or night. The itching is gone, and my baby is cured, and is now a healthy, rosy-cheeked boy.

MARY KELLERMAN, Beloit, Kan.

CUTICURA REMEDIES.

For cleansing, purifying and beautifying the skin and scalp and restoring the hair of children, infants and destroying the cause of eczema and all hereditary humors, the CUTICURA REMEDIES are simply infallible. CUTICURA, the great skin cure, instantly allays the most agonizing itching, burning and inflammation, clears the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, and restores the hair. CUTICURA SOAP, the greatest of skin beautifiers, is indispensable in treating skin diseases and baby humors. It produces the whitest, clearest skin and softest hands, free from pimples, spots or blemishes. CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, cures eczema, pimples, black-heads, chapped, red, rough and oily skin prevented by CUTICURA SOAP.

TIE AND TRACK.

MR. YERRINGTON IN CONSULTATION WITH THE CHAMBER.

No Conclusion Yet, But Hopes of Supplying the Missing Link—Railroad Accident at Lang's—The Teachers' and Pupils' Excursion Given Up.

Mr. Yerrington, president of the Carson and Colorado Railway, who is now in this city for the purpose of consulting with the Chamber of Commerce regarding the building of his road from the present terminus, at Keeler, 121 miles to Mojave, spent the whole day with members of the chamber yesterday. They did not come to any decision, however, although the gentlemen who have the matter in charge are confident that something will be done before Mr. Yerrington takes his departure.

The southbound train from San Francisco, due here at 7:15 yesterday morning, was severely delayed on account of an accident at Lang's Station to the northbound freight train which left here night before last. Some of the freight cars left the track on account of the parting of the rails, due to wet weather, and the passenger train could not pass until the wreck had been cleared away. The delayed passenger train had a carload of veterans from the Yountville Soldiers' Home. They are bound for the Soldiers' Home at Santa Monica.

All of the trains were running behind the schedule time on account of washouts at various points on the Southern Pacific road. The Santa Fe people are having better luck.

The Santa Fe's excursion for teachers and children to Riverside today has been postponed on account of the storm.

Up to last night nothing had been heard from the woman who left the train on the desert Wednesday night. Several search parties are out.

A MURDER TRIAL.

The Defendant Is Acquitted by a Jury.

The trial of D. C. Carrington, charged with the murder of Pat Mullen on the 2d of December last, was had yesterday before Judge Cheney, and resulted in Carrington's acquittal. The trouble grew out of a row about politics at the polls on Rose and Second streets on election day. Mullen and Carrington were working for different men, and a dispute arose in which the he passed, and Mullen knocked Carrington down, using, it was claimed, brass knuckles. The fight continued some little time, and Carrington was pretty badly battered. Some one finally called an officer, when Mullen started to run away, and when he had got about one hundred yards off he fell to the ground, saying that he was stabbed in the lower part of the abdomen. The wound apparently being inflicted with a small penknife. Mullen was carried to his home and medical aid at once summoned. He began to improve immediately after the fight, and it was thought that he would recover, but six or eight days later he took a turn for the worse, and died on the 13th of the month, ten days from the time he was hurt. Carrington, in the meantime, was taken to the City Prison, where he remained until his preliminary examination, when he was held to answer. There were several very peculiar features about the case. Although there were a large number of persons around while the fight was in progress, no one saw any knife used, or could say when the wound was inflicted. After the affair was over, an ordinary horn-handled pocket-knife was found near the place where the fight took place. All the blades, however, were closed, and there was nothing to show that it had been used. Carrington was seen in his cell at the City Prison on the night of the killing, and denied knowing anything about the knife, saying it was not his, and he did not know where it came from. The only evidence, therefore, against him was circumstantial. At the trial yesterday considerable testimony was offered, the most important of which was that of Dr. J. J. Stoll, the attending physician, who stated that the wound Mullen had received was not necessarily fatal, and if the patient had not, contrary to orders, left his bed and drank a quantity of water, he might have recovered. Other witnesses testified principally in regard to the fight leading up to the killing.

THE STORM.

But Little Damage Done in This City.

The rain came down in a steady, business-like way during most of the time yesterday, and at 3 o'clock this morning it was still coming down hard. So far as heard from, no particular damage has been done, notwithstanding an afternoon contemporary puts it at $50,000, the greatest annoyance being the wretched condition of the streets, the corners in the main business thoroughfares being absolutely impassable during the heavier showers. The river is rising quite rapidly, and there is a fair volume of water in the main bed, but nothing so far to indicate that there will be any unusual high water. The afternoon contemporary also says that "a great deal of sand" has accumulated about the piles at the first street bridge, and that "should the rain continue much longer it is feared that the bridge will give way." This is probably an error, as there has been no bridge over the river at first street for some months past, it having been removed to fifth street to make room for the viaduct, which is not yet in position. In the meantime the people have been crossing on the river bed, a short staging or incline being erected on the east bank. The piers for the new structure have been erected, and it is possible that these are where the sand has settled. First street is in a horrible condition, and at the corner of Spring there is a large pond, in which a small boat could be safely navigated. Several cellars had been overflowed up to last night, but the proprietors of the places were prepared and guarded against loss.

INCORPORATED.

The Orange-county Abstract Company yesterday filed articles of incorporation. The capital stock is $100,000, all of which has been subscribed for by W. S. Bartlett, Victor Montgomery, M. M. Crookshank, N. W. Gardner, C. W. Humphreys, W. K. James, E. F. Spence, J. D. Bicknell, Frank Gibson and D. E. Miles. The Y.M.C.A. of Pomona has also filed articles of incorporation. There is no capital stock.

The Immanuel Presbyterian Church has incorporated. The trustees are E. W. Poinsett, J. B. Boni, N. H. Merrimen, S. S. Salisbury, Jacob Wiley, E. A. Crispen and C. T. Pepper.

NO FALL-DOWN.

General Sentiment That the Flag Cottage Case Must Go On.

"Now that a beginning has been made in the matter of the Flag Cottage," said a prominent citizen to a Times reporter yesterday, "it is to be hoped that there will be no let-up until the infamous den is effectually closed down. Of course, under the present complaint, the McCormicks can only be prosecuted for keeping a disorderly house, but the complaint can be amended, and the whole character of the place can be gone into. This is what should be done, but there is an immense pressure being brought to bear by persons who have visited the place, and all afraid of exposure, to have the matter quietly dropped. This, however, will hardly be successful, as so much interest has been worked up by the newspapers that the authorities, even if they felt disposed to pursue this course, would hardly have the nerve to do so in the face of public sentiment that the matter must be brought to some sort of a conclusion."

It might be well to remind the officers that there are numerous other places as bad, if not worse, than this Flag Cottage, which should be raided and suppressed. It is bad enough to have open and flagrant lewdness on a leading thoroughfare, but when these people begin to invade the residence portion of the city it is time to call a halt and invoke the strong arm of the law to see that the order is obeyed."

The action of Justice Savage in summarily suppressing the "shotgun" subpoena issued by the defense was also commented on at some length, and quite a number of able lawyers are of the opinion that the Justice has committed a very grave error, as the subpoena, they say, if returned, was a part of the record, and should therefore have gone on file with the other papers in the case. Judge Savage, they say, owed this to himself and his court, especially in view of the open declaration by one of the parties who had been summoned that he believed the whole thing to have been an attempt at blackmail, which statement was made in open court to the Judge himself.

Constable Clements yesterday stated positively that he had returned the subpoena in due form, as is usual in such cases, and that he therefore had nothing further to do with it. The law in the matter of public documents is very plain, and if a subpoena is a legal paper, and part of the record in a case, it cannot be suppressed or destroyed.

Section 1082 of the Political Code says: "The public records and other matters in the office of any officer are at all times during office hours open to the inspection of any citizen of this State. In all actions for divorce the pleadings and the testimony taken and filed in said actions shall not be by the clerk with which the same is filed, or the referee before whom the testimony is taken, made public, nor shall the same be allowed to be inspected by any person except the parties that may be interested, or the attorneys to the action, or by an order of the court in which the action is pending. A copy of said order must be filed with the clerk."

Attachment papers are also secret until they have been served and return made. Section 1892 of the Code of Civil Procedure says: "Every citizen has a right to inspect and take a copy of any public writing of this State, except as otherwise expressly provided by statute." [Divorce papers and attachments.] Section 176 of the Penal Code says: "Every willful omission to perform any duty enjoined by law upon any public officer or person holding any public trust or employment, when no special provision shall have been made for the punishment of such delinquency, is punishable as a misdemeanor."

A Wild "Dutchman." This morning shortly after 12 o'clock a wild "Dutchman" fired off his revolver on Alameda street. Officer Mullaly took him in out of the wet and brought him to the police station, where he gave the name of B. I. Rosego, and was locked up, charged with flourishing a deadly weapon.

A CALIFORNIA SENSATION.

[Feteluma Courier.]

It is reported that the sales of the California remedy, Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, have grown within a few months till they are now really sensational. The way the fame of this production has spread is simply marvelous. Six months ago it was unknown. To-day it is all over the country. It is authoritatively stated that they have been actually giving it away in San Francisco to people afflicted with dyspepsia, sick headaches, indigestion and liver troubles, not to be paid for unless it cured. Such practical tests are so startlingly convincing as to be almost sensational. It is stated that two of the active principles of the new remedy belong to the vegetable kingdom of California and are so well known to us all under common names that it would surprise us if told them. But we are not surprised, at anything Californian, and this recent discovery of the new medicinal virtues of its vegetable kingdom is but another instance of the astonishing possibilities of a soil and climate like ours.

At such rates that all can use it, and at the same time return satisfactory profits to the holders of its securities. The fact that gas is one of the prime necessities of the people, makes this business good even in dull times, and hence the reason why investors generally give preference to this class of securities.

The London Economist, in a recent number, states that "the gas and water supply investments presented during the past 50 years, gas investments have proved the most satisfactory."

VON MOLTKE has celebrated the seventieth anniversary of his entrance into the army. Moltke is a veteran of veterans.

GENERAL TRACY, Secretary of the Navy, was among the famous 306 who stuck to Grant to the last in the convention of 1880.

The foreign press of Los Angeles is in trouble. The editors of La Cronica and El Progreso are both under a charge of misappropriating money.

CORN is still king in America. Iowa farmers landed enough corn last year to pay off all the farm mortgages in the State and leave a balance of 100,000,000 bushels for feed and seed.

A PHOENIX paper claims that Lewis Wolfley, the newly-appointed Governor of Arizona, is in league with the land ring that is trying to obtain the confirmation of the fraudulent Reavis grant.

The French Government is becoming alarmed at the large quantities of dried grapes that are being imported into that country for the purpose of manufacturing inferior wines, and threatens to put a prohibition duty on them.

COFFEE must be a very profitable crop—even more so than oranges. The Guatemala Star, in an article on the coffee product of that country, says the current price of $20 a quintal yields a profit of $13 above cost of production.

It is not alone the President who is pestered almost beyond endurance by office-seekers. Every Republican member of Congress, Senator and member-elect at Washington is suffering from a visitation of a good portion of the male population of his district. They get scarcely time enough to eat their meals.

WHILE Secretary Windom comes from the West, he is not bigoted on the subject of silver. He does not believe that silver dollars worth 80 cents are as good as gold dollars worth 100 cents each. Neither does he, on the other hand, believe that gold should be the only metal used for coin. He is, in short, a bi-metalist, and bi-metalism is all any sensible man in the West asks for.

THE gentle rain continues to fall upon the just and the unjust, also upon the unpaved portion of First street. The farmers are—that is to say, they were, but they will soon begin to cry, Enough! Reports from the country state that some of the earlier sown grain has lodged, but it will probably recover unless much more rain falls. The general effect of the rainfall on the crops, up to date, is excellent.

THE WAY TO IMPROVE IS TO IMPROVE.

In considering the probability of an improvement of business in Southern California, it is necessary to examine the business condition of the country at large, as well as the prospects of our own section, which, like all other parts of the country, responds to the financial feeling in the great centers of trade and money.

One of the chief features of the business world, during the past few months, has been the speculative rise in copper, caused by the dealings of the French syndicate, the recent complications of which have caused great financial disturbances in Paris. The effect of this has been felt, to a greater or less extent, in the United States. Holders of American copper stocks have, of course, suffered, but the chief losers have been speculators.

It is a noteworthy and encouraging fact that avaricious speculators have overdone their work in the United States during the past year, thus creating public disgust, and arousing the most marvelous demand for safe investments that has been known for many years. Notwithstanding the large amount of idle capital in New York, the professional operators in Wall street have failed to attract outside traders to the stock market, while on the other hand it has been impossible to meet the demand for bonds of acknowledged merit from investors.

General trade has undergone gradual but uninterrupted expansion for several weeks past. Every ordinary symptom points toward better times in mercantile affairs throughout the country. How soon, or to how great an extent, Southern California shall share in this improvement depends very largely on the action of our own capitalists. There is nothing that will so soon encourage outside capital to take hold as the evidence of confidence on the part of those who live on the spot, whereas, when home capital is afraid to venture it is most unreasonable to expect outsiders to jump in. Our journals and public-spirited citizens generally can call attention to openings for investment, and agitate such matters, but it rests with our solid men of money to go down into their pockets and set the ball-rolling.

Suppose, for instance, we make a start by endeavoring to secure railroad connection with the rich mineral section to the northeast. No sensible man doubts that such a step would give us a wonderful boost forward—a lift such as we have not had since the opening of the Southern Pacific. That fact is granted. Why, then, cannot we secure the line? The gap to be filled is short; the amount required small. Why cannot our capitalists get together and put the thing through? Or are they waiting until they can buy in that portion of the city which they do not own at Sheriff's sale?

A FLIMSY PRETEXT.

It is stated that there is little chance for the passage of the Mutual Insurance Bill over the Governor's veto.

We referred a short time ago to this action of Mr. Waterman's and to the storm of indignation which it raised among respectable citizens. Stephen M. White voted to pass the bill over the Governor's veto, and explained his vote as follows, and it stands so on the official journal:

"I vote 'aye,' because to vote otherwise would be to sanction the mistaken view that the certificate of a clerk or presiding officer, or the declaration of a party protesting against the record, may be sufficient to overturn such record. The approved record of the Assembly shows that the hypothesis upon which alone the Governor bases his veto has no existence in fact. That record cannot be impeached by the Supreme Court, the Governor, the Legislature itself. The certificates referred to in the message are of no more value than the certificate of any individual in the land. If such certificates could upset an act, the time might come when the officers of some other Legislature, of dishonest impulse, might vend certificates warranted to upset records."

"To vote 'no' would be to establish a dangerous precedent. There is nothing in any respect to warrant any reflection, in the slightest degree, upon the motives of the Executive, which are unquestioned."

This statement of Mr. White's disposes very effectively of the flimsy pretext for a veto furnished by the Waterman-Boruck administration. Commenting on Mr. White's remarks, the San Francisco Chronicle says:

This criticism comes from the President of the Senate, and being the deliberate opinion of a man who is accepted by both Republicans and Democrats here as the best authority on parliamentary procedure, is not a pleasant criticism to remain indelibly on the official records of the twenty-eighth session of the California Legislature.

A VERY important land case came up in the United States Circuit Court at Kansas City this week. The plaintiff is the Interstate Land Company, the defendant the Maxwell Land Grant Company, representing 50,000,000 acres of land, taking the east half of New Mexico, a portion in the southeast corner of Colorado, near Trinidad, about half of the neutral strip, and a large piece of Western Texas. The plaintiff claims that on March 13, 1882, the States of Coahuila and Texas, as a part of Old Mexico, ceded to José Manuel Roynella and John Charles Beales the grant described. Roynella finally turned his claim over to Beales. At the latter's death his heirs became the undisputed possessors, and sold the immense tract to the Interstate Land Company. The Maxwell Company, under a grant, claim ownership, and the decision remains with the courts.

A FLORIDA dispatch announces that bird plume hunters are overrunning the woods of the South. Ladies of good taste ought to discountenance the wearing of plumes—or rather bodies—of birds, and thus put a stop to this wholesale massacre of the feathered tribe, which threatens to end in the extinction of many varieties.

THE officers of the law should not permit the failure of one attempt to deter them from bringing the proprietors of the notorious Flag Cottage to task. The facts of the case are all too indubitable to permit of any question as to the character of the house. Some of the residents in that neighborhood exhibit very little public spirit, in holding back from testifying as to what they know. By the way, how is it that the good people of the University of California have not shown more active desire to do away with such a foul blot upon the southwestern part of the city?

THE St. Louis Republic prophesies thus regarding the outcome in 1892: On March 4, 1889, Benjamin Harrison and Levi Parsons Morton were sworn in as President and Vice-President of the United States. On March 4, 1893, they will be succeeded by John McComb Palmer and William Collins Whitney, if the Democratic party is wise and brave enough to deserve leadership that will mean victory. With Illinois gained and New York kept, the party of Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson and Grover Cleveland will have before it a future of usefulness as magnificent as the record of its past.

There is a pretty big "if" in the reckoning of Illinois among the Democratic States of 1892. Then, how about the four new States?

An amusing yarn comes from Buffalo to the effect that Huntington, Stanford and Mrs. Hopkins have bought a million acres in Lower California, and are going to build 1800 miles of railroad to develop the country; also, that while the engineers were at work on one of the surveys they struck gold, which decided Huntington to dispose of all his eastern railroad property and concentrate all his interest in the "far west." This is very funny. If Mr. Huntington had sold out every time gold was struck on one of his lines he would be pretty well sold by this time.

THE President's private secretary has already displayed one very good trait. He objects to being called Colonel, having no claim to that title and wants to be referred to as plain "Mr." Halford. It would be well if he had more imitators. We sneer at European titles, but there is no country in the world where so many men run about with handles to their names that they have never earned as in the United States.

IN our local columns appears a communication regarding juvenile delinquents which is worthy of careful attention.

A Chicago Chronicle.

CHICAGO, March 15.—John Jones, a grocer's clerk and a widower with seven children, is wanted by the police on the charge of murder. Jones' 17-year-old daughter confessed that she had been seduced by him, and that he had killed her mother with a knife for her refusal to marry him. Jones is a young married man, had also mistreated her. Jones and Bittings were arrested last Wednesday. Jones gave a statement to the police, saying that the girl was found suffering with symptoms of arsenical poisoning and died at the hospital this morning. Jones has disappeared.

Hope for Cipriote.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—In the trial of ex-Inspector of Customs Ferdinand Cipriote, for conspiracy to defraud the Government by issuing fraudulent Chinese certificates, Judge Sawyer severely criticized the action of the prosecution in bringing on the stand Boyd and Hinz, jointly indicted with Cipriote, to testify against the latter, and said it savored of conspiracy on the part of the Government's counsel for Hinz and Boyd to send Cipriote to jail. He refused to allow Hinz to testify. The prosecution rested its case.

Six Men Drowned.

NORFOLK (Va.), March 15.—Capt. Benjamin H. Knight, Second Mate James Rich, and four other men, including Ned Forbes and Charles Hobbs, sailors of the brig Agnes Barton, wrecked near Virginia Beach yesterday afternoon, were drowned. During the night three of the men were washed overboard. When day broke the life-saving crew saw the three remaining men lashed in the rigging. At 8 o'clock the vessel burst, her masts fell and the men were lost.

France to Exclude Foreign Grapes. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The Horticultural Commission has been advised that the French Government will probably place a prohibitive duty on dried grapes, which are being imported into that country for the purpose of making inferior wines.

Doing Good.

[Globe-Democrat.]

"There," said a neighbor, pointing to a village carpenter, "there is a man who has done good. I really believe, in this community that I know, no other person who ever lived in it. He cannot talk very much in public, and he does not try. He is not worth $2000, and it is very little he can put down on subscription papers. But a new family never moves into the village that he does not find it out, and give them a neighborly welcome and offer them some service. He is on the lookout to give strangers a seat in his pew at church. He is always ready to watch with a sick neighbor and look after his affairs for him. I believe he and his wife keep house plants in winter mainly that they may be able to send little bouquets to friends and invalids. He finds time for a pleasant word to every child he meets, and you'll always see them climbing into his one-horse wagon when he has no other load. He has a genius for helping folks, and it does me good to meet him in the streets."

M'COMB CENSURED.

Report on the Recent Prison Investigation.

The San Quentin Management Denounced Without Hint.

And the Removal of the Warden Emphatically Demanded.

The Legislature to Adjourn Today—Commissioners Appointed for the Los Angeles Reform School.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] In the Assembly this afternoon Mr. Shanahan presented a mass of testimony taken before the Ways and Means Committee in the State Prison investigation.

The committee finds that the books at San Quentin Prison are improperly kept, that the accounts of the jail mills are irregularly kept, a part of the day output being credited to the night output with a view to bolstering up the latter; that Warden McComb does not confine himself to the amount to which he is restricted for household expenses; that drunkenness, gambling and trafficking in liquors are indulged in by guards and officers; that prisoners have been allowed to leave the prison to labor upon the officers' private possessions; that the supplies are inferior to what the contracts call for, and that partisanship is a factor in the management of the prison; that expenses have greatly increased over those of previous administrations; that officers are arrogant and overbearing to those under them, and that the warden is negligent in inspecting the prison; that many letters written by Warden McComb and his subordinates to be genuine, are entirely devoid of any expressions of anxiety for the betterment of the condition of the prisoners or the best interests of the prison; that they disclose a revengeful disposition and condemn their author as unworthy of public trust; that the letter alleged to have been written by John McComb, Jr., is not in his hand-writing.

The committee sums up: "That the past management of San Quentin has been unreservedly bad, and that the admissions of McComb indicate his unfitness for the position he occupies. The committee deems it a marvel that the bad management should have been so long concealed. Its present condition is a reflection upon the commercial honesty of the authorities that permit it, and unless the powers which have sustained Warden McComb are brought to bear to secure his prompt dismissal, in the minds of an offended people they will share in the odium which attaches itself to his mismanagement of a great public trust."

The report is signed by Messrs. White, Harris, Stokes, Ostrom and Matthews.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Senate.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The Appropriation Bill was declared urgency, and the Senate went into Committee of the Whole for its second reading. The appropriation for new uniforms for the National Guard was changed to $25,000 for uniforming the old companies and $25,000 for uniforming the new companies organized by this Legislature.

The appropriation of $60,000 for furnishing lighting and heating apparatus for the Agnew's Asylum was added to the bill.

For the State normal school at San Francisco, in case the Governor signs the bill, $15,000 was added.

Assembly.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—In the Assembly, the bill relating to mortgages on personal property was passed.

The vote by which the State Printer Bill was passed over the Governor's veto was reconsidered, and the bill was passed again by a vote of 59 to 16.

Mr. Briery's constitutional amendment, making the Lieutenant-Governor take the place of the Board of Examiners, and putting his salary at $4000, was carried by 67 votes.

Mr. Damon's amendment, relative to taxation of mortgages, received 46 ayes and 23 nays.

The Assembly Committee on Ways and Means made a report on the prison investigation.

The bill making telegraph companies common carriers passed the Senate, and the verbal amendments were concurred in by the Assembly.

Mr. Shanahan of Shasta introduced the Tax Levy Bill, calling for something over $15,000,000.

At the evening session of the Assembly, bills were passed as follows: Assembly bill relating to the reclamation of certain water lands, introduced by Senator Jones, relating to preferred purchasers for lands sold to the State for taxes; Senate bill making an appropriation for the payment of discount on warrants for water supplied to the State Prison at San Quentin by the Marin County Water Company for three years; Senate bill to appropriate money for the survey, location and construction of a free wagon road from the town of Mariposa to the Yosemite Valley; Senate bill to authorize the Board of State Harbor Commissioners to construct railroads over the State lands and lands within the jurisdiction along the Santa Fe river, from the city and county of San Francisco and to regulate the use of the same; Senate bill to provide for compelling, illustrating, electrophotying, printing, binding, copying and distributing an elementary book on civil government for the State series of school text books; Senate bill relating to the settlement of accounts of trustees after the abolition of estates, and to compensation of trustees; for the remuneration of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company for merchandise lost in the Bay of San Francisco by falling through a rotten wharf under the control of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners; Senate bill in relation to property acquired after marriage; Senate bill to amend an act entitled "an act to provide a system of irrigation to promote rapid drainage and improve the navigation of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers."

ARIZONA PLEASED.

The Appointment of Wolfley Gives General Satisfaction.

TUCSON (Ariz.), March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The Citizens tonight publishes interviews with over fifty leading citizens, irrespective of party. All indorse in strong terms the appointment of Col. Lewis Wolfley for Governor. The Republicans of the Legislature, in caucus, indorsed him, and asked the United States Senate to confirm the nomination.

The Legislature will hold over without pay after the 31st so as to receive and consider Territorial appointments of Gov. Wolfley.

Gov. Zuleik sent in a batch of nominations yesterday, but the Council refused to act upon them.

LOWER CALIFORNIA.

Mexico Fears That the United States Will Absorb It.

CITY OF MEXICO (via Galveston), March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] Lower California is entirely quiet now. Gov. Torres has sufficient troops to preserve order in case they are wanted.

The conservative papers insist that Mexico will lose Lower California, and the inference is that the United States will absorb it. The Government, however, says there is no probability of losing Lower California.

Copper and silver mines have been discovered on the Ramirez Varala concession, in the State of Guerrero.

A NEVADA TRAGEDY.

Family Troubles Result in Three Murders and a Suicide.

AUSTIN (Nev.), March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] A terrible tragedy occurred at Italian Cañon, 12 miles from here, yesterday between 2 and 3 o'clock p.m. Samuel Rundie killed his father-in-law, George Hosking, and brother-in-law aged 15, by shooting them, a charge of shot entering the left side of the neck of the former and tearing away the face of the latter. A boy named Johnny King, hearing the shot, came toward the house and was shot by Rundie, holding out the gun and asking the boy to shoot him. The boy refused, telling him to come to the house and get dinner. Rundie then took the boy's horse and rode three miles to a lower ranch, entered the kitchen of the house, and with a pistol shot Mrs. Hosking below the left temple and then shot himself in the right temple. Mrs. Hosking was ironing clothes at the time.

The tragedy resulted over a quarrel about division of property and family troubles. Mr. Rundie was in Austin at the time of the shooting, and is distracted at the news, having two children, the eldest 18 months old. Johnny King followed Rundie on a horse to the lower ranch and found the body of the boy and told of the tragedy. The news spread like wildfire over the country. The whole town is shocked, as never before occurred such a wholesale shooting in the history of the county. A funeral will occur tomorrow. Rundie had borne a good character among his neighbors.

Copier A. A. Flint, Sheriff McComb, District Attorney W. D. Jones, Justice L. A. Miller and D. Scutbarr, on receiving the news, quickly drove out to the ranches. The bodies were brought in at 11 o'clock last night and taken to the hose-house. An inquest was held today by Coroner Flint at the Justice's office of J. M. Wallace. Sheriff James McComb, W. H. Booth, Johnson Rodda, Dr. M. A. Scutbarr and W. D. Jones acted as a jury and Johnny Jones as a witness.

IN CAHOOTS.

England, France and Germany Scheming for the Pacific Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] An evening paper prints a private interview with a gentleman now in this city who claims to have official reasons for knowing the inwardness of the Samoan complication. He says: "This Samoan trouble is only the outcome of a policy long since agreed upon between England, France and Germany. Laying minor features aside, New Caledonia was to be allotted to France, Samoa to Germany and the Hawaiian Islands to England." Many arguments are advanced for the purpose of showing that the policy of these Governments from then until now has been to gain possession of these respective islands.

Speaking with special reference to the Hawaiian islands this authority says: "A scheme is now on foot by English parties to buy up one of the Hawaiian Islands entire, then lay a cable from Vancouver over it. This is supposed to be in the interest of the English Government."

STATE CAPITAL NOTES.

Commissioners Appointed for the Los Angeles Juvenile Home.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The Governor today appointed Harvey Lindley, I. R. Lowe and Josiah Sims a commission to select the site of the Juvenile Offenders' Home in Los Angeles. The commissioners have under their control an expenditure of $300,000.

The Governor has appointed J. H. Barbour, Henry Ingie and C. Albert Harber Commissioners for San Diego.

The action taken today makes an adjournment tomorrow probable. By calling in the assistance of outside printing offices, the necessary work of printing engrossed and enrolled bills can be done. Three or four Assemblymen left town today, and most of both houses are getting restless. Many say they will not come back next week.

Senator Yell, on behalf of the Senate, presented a diamond pin to President White this evening.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Several Changes Approved by the State Commissioners.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] Under date of February 12th, J. C. Stubbs, general traffic manager of the Southern Pacific, sent a letter to the Railroad Commissioners, in which he requested the approval of a rate of $7.50 per ton from San Bernardino, Colton and Riverdale to San Francisco on oranges in straight carloads, and stated that if this rate was approved he understood that the California Southern road would make a rate from these places to San Francisco through San Diego of $6.50 per ton. The commissioners today authorized the rate requested by Mr. Stubbs.

The commission also approved a reduction of 50 per cent in ticket rates on the Clear Lake division of the Southern Pacific Company. The reduction of 15 per cent in rates on the San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad Company was also approved.

A Terrible Voyage.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The bark Sunbeam, 30 days from Kobe, Japan, with a cargo of grain and coal, arrived this morning. The captain reported it the worst voyage he had ever experienced. From the time he left Kobe until he arrived in port he encountered nothing but a succession of heavy gales, blowing from the southwest to south. The deckhouse was stove in and the vessel filled with water. Over a dozen men were lost during a squall. Last Sunday a seaman named John Williams, a native of Chile, fell from the main topsail yard to the deck, and was instantly killed.

A Fatal Leap.

PORTLAND (Or.), March 15.—C. C. Scott, one of the proprietors of the Gilman House, leaped from a third-story window of the hotel tonight, sustaining injuries from which he died in half an hour. For several months he had been in failing health. He visited Paso Robles, Cal., in hopes of recuperating. He returned to Portland only a few days since. His wife is in California.

Murder at Ensenada.

SAN DIEGO, March 15.—At Ensenada today two Mexican mounted police had a dispute. One, drawing a 44-caliber pistol, shot the other through the stomach. The bullet passed through the body and struck a negro peon in the wrist, inflicting a bad wound. The wounded policeman will die. The murderer escaped.

Naval Veterans' Legion.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—At a meeting of the Naval Veterans' Legion this evening, a preamble and resolutions were adopted relating to the opening of the National Soldiers' Home at Milwaukee. The legion has considered the maintenance of the home at Yountville unnecessary and injudicious.

Wolfley's Appointment Announced. PHOENIX (Ariz.), March 15.—The appointment of Gen. Lewis Wolfley of Tucson as Governor was officially announced in the Legislature at noon today, and an adjournment was taken in honor of it.

His Identity Unknown.

RED BLUFF, March 15.—The man injured near Proberta on Wednesday morning by the 5 o'clock train died last night while unconscious. There is no clue to his identity.

Both Convicted.

ELKO (Nev.), March 15.—Josiah and Elizabeth Potts were today convicted of murder in the first degree for killing Miles Faucett at Carling, January 1, 1888.

The Anaconda Mine's Loss.

BUTTE (Mont.), March 15.—The loss by the fire at the Anaconda Mining Company's works yesterday is now estimated at $1,000,000, with no insurance.

WIND AND RAIN.

The Storm Raging All Over the State.

A Schoolhouse Wrecked at San Diego—Two Persons Injured.

The Sacramento River Overflowing and Still Rising.

A Great Force of Men Repairing Washouts at Delta—Other Damage to Railways—Trains Delayed.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The heavy rain has resulted in considerable damage to merchants along the lower section of the business portion of the city, especially on Front, Pine and Davis streets. The sewers have been inadequate to carry off the rain-water, and unusually high tides have prevented the sewers from emptying their contents into the bay. Consequently they have overflowed and filled the basements of the buildings, inflicting heavy loss on goods stored therein.

BUSINESS.

Money, Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

New York, March 15.—Money on call easy at 1 1/2@2 1/2 per cent.
Prime mercantile paper, 4 1/2@5 1/2.
Sterling exchange, dull and steady at 4.85 1/2 for 60-day bills, 4.85 1/2 for demand.
Government bonds, dull but steady.

New York, March 15.—The stock market was weaker than it has been for some time today, and the amount of business done will compare favorably with any previous day this year. All the grangers were weak but Rock Island and Burlington and Quincy reached lower figures than have heretofore been attained, and a raid was made upon Missouri Pacific in the afternoon, which made it one of the weakest stocks on the list. The market finally closed active and heavy to weak at or near the lowest figures of the day.
